

Moneeza Walji

Moneeza Walji is a recent graduate of the University of Toronto Medical School and currently the Editorial Fellow at the Canadian Medical Association Journal. After medical school she worked as a Research Scholar at Fudan University's School of Public Health in Shanghai, China. While at the University of Toronto she was Vice President of Global Health for the University of Toronto Medical Society supporting global health initiatives on campus. Prior to this, she worked in Ethiopia with a non-governmental organization that combats Gender-Based Violence and Female Genital Mutilation (FGM), before completing the Forced Migration Master in Public Health program at Columbia University in New York. During her training she interned with United Nations Relief and Works Agency and UNICEF. She has an interest in understanding how different cultures view illness and health, and how health delivery evolves with changing cultural and economic demands.

Declaration of Competing Interests

CMAJ - 2014

Date: 07/08/2014

Name: Moneeza Walji

All questions relate to the past 3 years:

1. Have you accepted any of the following from an organization that has (or might have) a relationship with CMAJ now or in the future and that might gain or lose financially because of the relationship?

1.a Reimbursement for attending a symposium
no

1.b Speaker Fees
no

1.c Fees for educational event
no

1.d Research funds
no

1.e Funds for a member of your staff
no

1.f Consulting fees

no

2. Do you hold stocks or shares in an organization that might benefit or lose from an existing relationship with CMAJ?

no

3. Do you have other competing financial interests?

no